

A Rising Wave?: ICT Experts on the Most Recent Terror Attacks in Israel

Since 22 March, four terror attacks have been carried out in Israel, resulting in the deaths of 14 victims. During this period, ICT experts have provided up to date analysis and policy recommendations for countering this rising wave.

In this special issue: An interview with ICT Founder and Executive Director, Boaz Ganor, on how media sensationalization of terror attacks increases their success; A new article from the ICT describing the most recent wave of attacks; Oz Noy, a fellow and former head of the Israel Security Agency's Israel and Abroad Division joined the "The Terrorist" podcast, and more!

Featured Publication

In a new article, Dr. Eitan Azani, Dr. Michael Barak, Ms. Lorena Atiyas Lvovsky, and Ms. Daniel Haberfeld review the recent wave of terror attacks in Israel, and discuss the how .the state fits into the broader global jihadist strategy

(Written in Hebrew - English translation is forthcoming)

Read Here

Interviews

During an interview with KAN 11, Prof. Boaz Ganor, Founder and Executive Director of the ICT, shared insights into how media sensationalization of terror attacks in general, and this terror attack specifically, increased terror success.

(Conducted in Hebrew)

Watch Here

Speaking with i24News, Dr. Ely Karmon, a senior researcher at the ICT, discussed the challenges and dilemmas faced by Israeli policy makers in the wake of this recent wave of terror attacks.

Watch Here

In an interview with KAN 11, Dr. Michael Barak, a senior researcher at the ICT and head of the Global Jihad Monitoring Desk, discussed the presence of ISIS in Israel in the aftermath of recent terror attacks.

(Conducted in Hebrew)

Boaz Ganor on AI-Monitor

Prof. Boaz Ganor joined the AI-Monitor Podcast, hosted by Ben Caspit, to discuss the recent wave of terror attacks in Israel and the unique challenges that lone-actor attackers pose for intelligence services around the world.

Listen Here

Oz Noy on ISIS's Influence in Israel

In an interview with The Media Line, Mr. Oz Noy, former head of the Israel and Abroad Division in the Israel Security Agency and current ICT Fellow, shared his insights on the threat level posed by supporters of ISIS in Israel.

Read Here

Ely Karmon on ISIS Incitement Campaigns

Dr. Ely Karmon, in an interview with i24News, discussed how recent attacks in Israel may have been the result of an "incitement campaign" after the death of ISIS previous leader earlier this year

Listen Here

Michael Barak on how Open-Source ISIS Manuals may have supported attacker

In the aftermath of the terror attack in the Israeli city of Beer Sheva, Michael Barak, a senior researcher, discussed how the attack modus operandi appears to have been aligned with instructions in online manuals from ISIS.

Read Here

Ezra Saar on Challenges to Security Forces

In the wake of the most recent attacks in Israel, Mr. Ezra Saar, a former member of the Israel Security Agency and current ICT Fellow, was interviewed by Maariv on the challenge of identifying terrorists before a "lone wolf" attack.

(Conducted in Hebrew)

Boaz Ganor on the Sensationalization of Terrorism

In this article, Boaz Ganor discussed how chaotic management, sensationalism by journalists, and increased public anxiety exacerbated the impacts of the recent terror attack in Tel Aviv.

Podcast

In the most recent episode of The Terrorist podcast, Dan Ganor interviewed Mr. Oz Noy, former head of the Israel and Abroad Division of the Israel Security Agency and current ICT fellow, on how the security services track and respond to the presence of supporters of the Islamic State in Israel. During the episode, they also discussed how HAMAS fits into the current wave of terror.

(Conducted in Hebrew)

Listen Here

International Institute for Counter-Terrorism | P.O. Box: 167 | Herzliya | 4610101 | Israel | 09-9527277

הסר | דווח כספאם

נשלח באמצעות תוכנת ActiveTrail

